Which Will Be Best? Reader, of whatever political faith you are which will be the best? That the country shall remain whole and united as it is, the Miss., a few days since, said: South being the receptacle and market for the products of the manufactories and workshops be the best? This is a matter for every voter to consider. As the country now exists, the South is the market for the North. Northern thousands of hands are employed in them, and receive their pay for their work, and then the cotton goods are again sold to the cles of manufacture South. The little town of Lynn, in Massachusetts, alone sells several country four millions of free negroes. the necessary fixtures to it. Buffalo Robes and millions of pairs of shoes annually South .--The iron works and rolling mills of the North find their best markets South. The cities of New York and I hiladelphia, and other northeir teeming millions thus have prosperity. In the Democracy of Penneyleania: The Democratio State Committee deems is n duty, once more to a idress you, before the o's final vote for President of the United States. R. It is enabled to do so now, with a conscious ners that, every sucrifice of private feeling having Leen made, the Democratic party is once more united in the support of the regu-larly neminated Electoral Ticket, which, n its aggregate, represents the public sentiment of Pennsylvania, adverge to sectionalism, and faithful to the Union and the Con-

The object of the State Committee now is to invoke for that ticket a zeak us and active support. Such a support, given in every county of the State, may reverse the defeat at the State election, and, even if it does not, will save the Democratic party from that disntegration, which an apparent abandonment of its flag would seem to threater, and which our ancient enemies so much derire. If the Democratic party in Pennsylvania can be demoralized and broken to pieces, the permasubstantially Democratic that any one in the Umon, be handed over for a series of years,

A thorough organization and full vote of the Democracy at the Presidential election, is important for other reasons. Intoxicated by one victory, won mainly through the unhappy differences of the Democracy,—sure, without effort, of another

It may be, should the attempt at colonizing be persisted in that Penn-

But there is a higher and stronger motive to action. Every Democratic voto cast in November-every vote, indeed, against the Republican ticket-is a vote for the Constitution, the Union, and for the rights and property and safety of our Southern brothren, and swells the great conservative body, which whether it be ut the time a majority or minority, now stands as the only but riet to sectionalism and fanaticism. Should Mr. Lincoln be elected, and his administration prove, as we fear it will, to be animated by the aggressive spirit of anti-slavery fanaticism, and threaten still more the well ascertained rights of any portion of the Unions the Democratic party of Pennsylvania will be the great constituent of the constitutional opporsicion, which must check and control the Executive. It is all important that the clements of such an opposition should develope themselves at the polls now. Such a demonstrati a of Northern Democratic sentiment, even if it should not insure victory, may ultimutely save the Urion, by showing to the South how many true friends they have in the North, and especially in those Middle Soutes, which are the truest and most loyal to the Constitution. Let it be remindered that wien, in 1854, the storm of kindred fameticism broke upon Pennsylvania, the Know Nothing candidate was elected Governor by an overwhelming majority; and jet, in less than two years, faunticism died out as suddenly as it arms, and the Democratic party, true to its principles-faithful, even in disaster, to its standard-resume t its influence and predominance in the State. So will it be now. All depends on activity, on concert, on hone orable and magnanimous forgetfulness of past differences. Lit any one who hinte at their revival, who seeks to excite again any unkind leving among Democrats, be marked as an enemy to his country and to his party. Let the County Committees take immediate measure to secure a full vote of the Democratic party, even in districts where local success is mpracticable; for, remember that, in Norember, every vote counts in the great result and that every Democrat who stays at home, expresses his desprir of the Republic, and practically votes with the enemies of the Union and the Constitution.
WILLIAM II. WELSH, Chairman.

14,000 Negro Votes-Ohio Carried by the Negroes.

The official returns of the State election in Ohio, shows that the Republican majority is only something over 8,000. At the same election, under the decision of Judge Brinkerhoff, 14,000 negro votes were cast. The State election in Ohi then was carried by negro vutes. Wahout them the Republican party would have been in a minority of about 6,000 votes. White men of Pennsylvania, what think you of this? Very probably, one of the first acts of the next Republican legislature of this State will be the adoption of resolutions providing for an amendment to the Constitution, allowing negro suffrage in Pennsylvania .-This is what is coming.

Democrats!

Remember that we are now a united party, that there is Lut one Democratic Electoral Ticket, that the Breckinridge men and the Douglas men will both vote it, and that therefore, we may redcem Pennsylvania, if we go to work. Now is the time to fight for principle! The old Democratic flag still waves above us! It shall never be dishonored. To the rescue, Democrats of Adams county.

The mission, then, of the Republican party is to abolish slavery, so that all the fabor of the country may be perormed by free laborers. Let us see what good this would do the white Mochanics and Workingmen. Nonrly ail the slaves in the country are employed as field hands. A few are liouse servants and a few mechanics. In what way does their labor as slaves conflict with the free labor of the country? In no way whatever. We invite your serious attention to the position assumed by the Republican party on the question of slavery in its relation to the laboring interests of the country. Hon. FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of St. Louis, who recently made a stumping tour through this State, speak-

Slave labor can only become injurious to free labor when brought into competition with it; and so long as they occupy different sections of the country, there can be no conflict or competition between them. The white laborer of the North moves in one sphere and the black lahorer of the South in another. Free labor travels one read and slave labor travels another. They can only come in collision when both of them attempt to travel the same read. Now when will the free laborers of the North and the slave laborers of the South stand side by side and compete with one another? Not while slavery lasts. That is clear. But abolish slavery and open the South to free inbor, as Lincoln and the Republicans propose, and what then? Just this: the South would be as firmly closed against white laborers as it is now, unless a portion of the liberated negroes came North, and a portion of our white laborers went South to till their maces and work in the fields along with the negro laborers remaining there! There is not a white laborer in all the North Philadelphia-Joseph Caldwell, Thomas E. | who would not feel insulted if he were Gaskul, Patrick McDonough, Robert E. Ran- advised to go down South and seek omployment along with a gang of negroes, whether slave or free, in a field or a factory. Yet this is just the employment offered to him by the Republicans in exchange for his vote-the pay they propose to give him for voting for Lincoln and helping to "put alavery n progress of altimate extinction."

Nor is this the worst of it. When back, John Dismant.

Bucks—Joseph Barnsley, Dr. A. Reily. the Republicans succeed in the "ultilaborers of the North will not need to go South to get the glorious Black Ropublican privilege of working alongside of negroes. Whenever the States become "all free," as SEWARD and LIN-COLN want to make them, hundreds of thousands, and perhaps millions, of the iberated negroes will come North and squat down among us and enter into competition with our white Mechanics Lycoming and Clinton-W. R. Armstrong, and Workingmen on our own soil.-Then we shall have an "irrepressible conflict" between white labor and black labor, and unless the white laborer is willing to work as low and live as meanly as the negro, Sambo will get all the work. Ayo, and the Republican cmployers, who are crying out so loudly for "free labor," would be the first to turn off their free white laborers and employ free negroes at lower wages. Probably, if the truth were known. their great reason for desiring the "extinction" of slavery, is that a horde of liberated negroes may come North and by competition reduce the wages of This is just what it must and will come to, it ever the Republicans get the power to carry out their programme for the extinction or slavery. The worst day the white laborers of the North ever will see, will be the day when the black laborers of the South shall be set free. We warn our Mochanics and Workingmen not to suffer themselves to be misled on this subject. A vote for Lincoln is a vote for the abolition of slavery, and a vote for the abolition of slavery is a vote in favor of bringing Southern negroes here to throw white men out of work and reduce the wages of labor. This is the honest truth, and it ought to sink deep in the mind of every poor white man in the North.—Statesman.

The recent action of the Democratic State Committee, at Reading, has removed every impediment in the way of a union of all true Democrate against the common enemy Differences in regard to men have been laid aside, and the party is brought back to the stand-point where the Reading Convention placed it. No Democrat is asked now to pledge himself to this or that candidate, but simply to stand by THE PLATFORM AND THE TICKET OF THE READING CONVENTION. Hero is a "neutral ground" upon which we may all meet on equal terms. Mr. Douglas has publicly declared that he accepts the Reading Platform. The friends of Mr. BRECKINBIDGE have proved their adhesion to it by the ready and undivided support they gave to Gen.
